YEARBOOK

"Can't Sit Down"

Holly Giles appears at Burger King as "Gonzo the Gorilla" and amuses a young patron. Kelly Kuropatkin looks on.

Guess who? No one wanted to wear this hot, smelly rubber mask at Burger King.

The yearbook has gotten a Macintosh LC computer through a special program with Jostens and has bought a Silentwriter laser printer. George Witman and Kevin Carlson are learning to use yearbook software and next year we will do the yearbook on computer. Another new activity was working at Burger King on December 12 from 5 to 9 p.m. We received 20% of the receipts for those four hours. Several girls gamely dressed up in a monkey loaned by Lauren Cristini. Pete Carlson photographed the event. We also produced a black and white classbook which seniors will receive on classnight in May. March saw the deadline for parents to submit baby pictures of their children who are seniors. Mrs. Julian is the only one who sees this section of the yearbook, so that seniors will be pleasantly surprised next fall when they receive their books.

SKI CLUB

Each Tuesday afternoon students rode the bus to Mt. Wachusett and spent four hours carving turns into the snow-covered trails. The woods on each side were more often than not void of snow, but that did not take away from the winter fun under the flood lights. One student became the teacher as the two chaperones gave a try at snow boarding.

The Ski Club's second adventure was a trip to Sugarloaf USA, located in Carra-bassett, Maine. On January 31, forty students and all their suitcases and ski gear crowded onto the bus for a long drive to a fabulous weekend. The early risers were able to make runs in freshly fallen snow, something that every skier longs for. Other students warmed up in the health room. Exercise machines, weights, saunas, and a whirlpool were available. A teen club provided a place for many of the students to meet and mingle with other teens.

In spite of the low amount of snowfall this year, the club found the skiing this year to be remarkable. We look forward to next season with the hopes that Mother Nature will make her contributions earlier in the season.

IN BLACK AND WHITE

Ms. Johnson works with Tony Frederico and Ricky Woods.

This past year Ms. Lori Johnson, Grafton High's newest English teacher, has been busy starting and maintaining a school newspaper. With the help and cooperation of editors, writers, photographers, business and production staff, the students were successfully able to put out an issue each month.

The first issue went out in October 1991. It was hard to get the system going with consistency because we needed to raise money, organize, and arouse interest. The paper, In Black and White, is printed by Worcester County Newspapers. In order to raise money to pay printing costs and other expenses, the business staff went out visiting and phoning area businesses and persuading them to purchase ads; the paper costs students 25¢ but the staff is attempting to raise enough advertising dollars to distribute the paper free of charge.

In March and April members of the staff visited conferences and workshops to improve the quality of the newspaper. With the variation of articles and the desire to make our newspaper look as professional as possible, the staff found the workshops very informative. It took a while, but In Black and White has improved greatly and everyone is very pleased with the results.

One of the factors behind the newspaper's success is the school's Macintosh computers. By using the computers, business staff can print up ads, writers can save their articles, and editors can review them and arrange them into newspaper columns. Different articles include news, literary, features, and sports. We have also had some controversial issues that aroused much debate and personal feelings. Topics such as abortion, feminism, sexism, and the Clarence Thomas case were discussed and opposing views were printed.

Overall, everyone is pleased with the success of In Black and White and grateful to Ms. Johnson and her staff and their dedication. There are some improvements the staff has already talked about working toward and they will hopefully have a successful future.

Grafton High's Odyssey of the Mind structure team placed first in the state finals held at WPI on April 11, allowing the team to be one of the 13 other teams representing Massachusetts in the world finals in Boulder, Colorado, May 27-31. Grafton's winning state team consisted of Ryan Bardsley, Megan Bardsley, Kevin Carlson, Chris Migala, and Aaron Sherritt. The team was coached by Mrs. Dadah and Mr. Hennessy. Their structure held 542 pounds, setting a new state record. The world finals included 650 teams from the U.S., Canada, Mexico, the People's Republic of China, Japan, Germany, Poland, Hungary, Belgium, Saudi Arabia, Australia, Russia, and American schools in England, Belgium and the Netherlands. Grafton's balsa wood structure held 560 pounds. The world record of 989 pounds was broken a number of times. The winning Division III team's structure held 1145 pounds. The Grafton team learned from this experience in Colorado. They are already working on a new structure for next year and have set their goals — world finals in Maryland next spring.

I'M FOREVER YOURS

Finally, the preparations were complete and the day had arrived. More memorable weddings would have been difficult to imagine.

Personal and Family Living is a course in which the students learn about themselves, their peers, and how to prepare for their future. The "mock" weddings are the highlight of the course. The weddings were as close to the real thing as possible. Participants in the first wedding were: Mark Auger and Angela Bagley, parents of the bride; Allen Johnson and Jodi Martin, parents of the groom; Jill Grey, and Genea Rychlik, bridesmaids; Matt MacQueen and Jon Cusson, ushers; Lisa Douaire, maid of honor; Dennis Whitney, best man; Todd Charbonneau, celebrant; Shannon Clark, bride; and Critter Jordan, groom. Important contributions behind the scenes were made by: Chris Tulloch, Derek Grandinetti, Cheryl Aspinall, Tammi DiCenzo, Suzanne Simoneau, Juanita Maranda, Erin O'Connor, Alison Paravano, Cindy Murtari, and Lisa Runkal.

DEDICATION

Dear Mr. Pignataro,

Our four years at Grafton High School have now come to an end. We began as naive, anxious freshmen and with your guidance and inspiration, we became a more mature, spirited class. You have always listened to our ideas and supported us through everything. Your dedication and ambition have encouraged us to become motivated and to become more unified and successful. And for all that we have accomplished, we are grateful to you. So, as we move on, we will always remember you. We wish to dedicate the yearbook of the Class of 1992 to you.

ICE DREAM

by Jamie Walker

I entered the rink and wandered slowly to the edge of the balcony to look at the ice. I noticed a silver of light gleaming through a crack, illuminating the dust that hovered in the cold, crisp, winter air. Just stepping onto the ice was a boy no more than ten years old. He had only a pair of skates, a stick, a puck, and a dream. A dream of scoring the winning goal in a championship game.

He began his solitary practice, shooting the puck against the boards. The impact produced a modest thunk that echoed quietly through the building. Finally he gathered the puck from the corner and began to skate up ice toward the opposing goal. He twisted the turned to avoid imaginary players. He pulled up to the blue line and stopped, lifting his head to look at the menacing goalie he imagined was there. He took a deep breath and began to skate again. Everything seemed to be in slow motion. His eyes closed. He wound up and unleashed a bullet. To the left top corner of the net the puck flew. The net jerked back and the puck bounced two of three times, then lay flat in the bottom of the goal. The boy had scored. He turned to the bleachers, heard the raucous cheers of the adoring fans who chanted, "Bobbie, Bobbie." Bobbie slowly shook his head back to reality, and heard one person clapping. It was me.

He glanced up at me, squinting into the sunlight, and said, "I know who you are. I hope to be as good as you some day."

JUNIORS

"Here We Go Again"

The Class of 93's junior year is almost over; it's hard for many of us to believe it went by so quickly (others, who have been counting the days since freshman year, may beg to differ . . .). Living up to the precedent set by our first two years at Grafton High, our junior year was very productive—hardly a day passed without a project or activity to plan. Between fundraisers—which included the Whirlybird Whoopee, dances, Candy Cane sales, and Burger King and plans for next year—like choosing where to have our senior portraits—we were always busy. In addition to all of this, we still managed to have fun and we even managed to maintain our status as THE MOST SPIRITED CLASS OF GHS by winning the Spirit Week Competition!!!

Below: Andrea Day, Erin Brehme, Emily Delaney, Tina Fiacco and Danielle Dumas at Spirit Week Activities.

Our freshman year has now come to an end. We entered Grafton High School with our middle school mentality and have had to adjust to high school standards. Our class, having the largest student body with 80 girls and 51 boys, has a total number of 131 students. Hopefully, our class will use its size to win pep rallies and future spirit weeks.

Throughout the year, we accomplished many things such as; our Freshman dance which did better than we expected, and the bottle and can drive which also proved to be successful. Now, we have our Sophomore semi-formal and ring dance to look forward to. Although many people say that being a Freshman is the worst our class managed to stick it together. We know we'll make it through whatever obstacles may be in our way through our remaining years. "KEEP IT ALIVE CLASS OF '95"

"You Must Have Been A Beautiful Baby!!!"

As seniors we have had the opportunity to watch all the teachers mature in the past four years. We have noticed several teachers sporting new looks in the hair department, trying out new trends in clothes, and tipping the scales with weight gains and losses. But as students, we wouldn't dare say if the changes have been good or bad. Now that we are leaving GHS, we can take a chance by revealing a part of the teachers' past lives that no one has ever seen before. You can decide for yourself whether the maturing process was for the better or worse. Answers: C. Mrs. Kalber; H. Mr. Carter; D. Mrs. Cimoch; AA. Mrs. Gosselin; GG. Mrs. Rector; DD. Mrs. Dadah; A. GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY

"Catch Us If You Can"

The girls cross country team consisted of many young runners. Tricia Cochran, Megan Flynn, Kellie Coonan, Carol Klocek, Kelly Atchue, and Lynn Molinari were the oldest members of the team only being sophomores. Freshman Sherri Atchue and Bethany Hart were also strong contributors to the team. Coach Dick Coleman worked the girls hard and because of their determination they never gave up. Kelly and Sherr Atchue placed sixth and third respectively in the division three SWCL meet. They were also named SWCL all-stars. All the girls deserve recognition for their success and efforts. The season ended with a 4-5 record. Good Luck next year girls!

The 1991 cross country team coached by Mr. Coleman consisted of senior captains Jamie Walker and Joe Flynn. Other senior members were Keith "Bert" Dubois, Joel Therrien, Mike Clements, and Steve "Lou" Cunningham. Ryan Bardsley and Andy "Boat" Bretcher were the two juniors. Sophomores Aaron Sherrit and Chuck Farrar and freshmen Chris Lapworth and Mike Lobo also helped the team to win. This group of Indians enjoyed an 8-3 season. Chuck Farrar, Joe Flynn, and Chris Lapworth were recognized as SWCL all-stars. The team finished second in the league meet by one point and did well in the Division Three district meet which took place in Gardner.

GIRLS SOCCER

"Can't Touch This!"

In its first year, the Girls Varsity Soccer Team proved its determination and ability. Not only did the team show itself to be a worthy contender, it finished the season undefeated in the S.W.C.L. league. Backed by the number one S.W.C.L. goalie, Gretchen Jordan, the team completed the season with a 6-3-3 record — a record which did not fully represent the talent on the team. Starting with a rigorous captain's practice in the summer, the girls began to pull it together as a team and stick it out through the "blood, sweat, and tears" yet to come. Team spirit was demonstrated in many ways, like team cheers, posters . . . and war paint? The team does owe some of this spirit to the optimism and dedication of Coach Kauffman, "K.K.", who pushed them on and fought for all they had earned. As District competitors their first year, the girls "anticipate" a very promising future for the team. Losing only its one senior captain, Erika Schonberg, the Girls Soccer Team hopes to go even further in years to come. — K.O.B.K.

Smiles for victory . . . or just for the camera?

To sum up this chapter in the Grafton book of soccer, in the ever famous words of Dick Flynn, "Tough one to lose!" The month of September brought us many good fortunes. The team had great spirit all through September with constant bloodshed wins . . . then we hit that Satan blessed October. From the great victories in September, it brought the team down with a losing streak that the G's couldn't recover from. Barely no wins in October has become a prided tradition that the team shall cherish for ever. The defense was led by the underhanded Jon Cusson who led the team in yellow cards against him. Bob "Cecil" Leger and many underclassmen alternates put their hearts in their defensive play. Tim Graves was the infamous stopper or the 'Grafton G's. Leading the midfield players was the seasons leading in red cards, Derek Grandinetti. Assisting Derek in midfield was flatfoot Essek Petrie. Ted "Ed Grimley" Azar the teams leading scorer held the center forward position. Assisting him with many skilled maneuvers was Matt "Wanka" Winalski. Wandering through many positions on the Grafton field were Neil Jordan, the double force of the Yaps and Pete "ah my knee" Carlson. Backing up all the field players was sticky fingers Scott Townsend. So in closing with hats off to the team, a tribute goes out to all of the players in saying 1 . . . 2 . . . 3 . . . ahhh! P.S. — Whatever happened to the hairnets?

The 1991 Indian Field Hockey Team was lead by senior tri-captains Pam Pelletier, Lauren Cristini, and Becky Maffei. The team endured tough defeats to Oxford and Hopedale. They also had many surprising victories. The Indians win over the Auburn Rockets proved to be the highlight of the season. Playing in a rain storm was an exciting experience for the girls. After this game we traveled to Leicester; each girl played her best. With a hat trick from Pam Pelletier and a single goal from Jen Carr the team settled for a 4-4 tie. There were many goal scorers this year who all assisted in the 4-6-3 record. Both sophomore goal tenders performed well with each showing. The team also had two SWCL all-stars, Lisa Douaire and Pam Pelletier. Our coaches Shirley Cusson and Kelly Reed worked with an average of 50 kids. Their support and dedication are greatly appreciated by the entire team. Good Luck to everyone next year! This year the Indian Football Team finished the season with a 5-5-1 record. Led by the senior tri-captains Andy Greenlaw, Chris Hurley, and Steve Nicalek. The Indians won big games against Millbury, Northbridge, Auburn, Oxford, and Prouty. The team also consisted of eleven other seniors who were each individually important to the success of the team. Juniors Terry Cahill, Jeff Caputo, Nippa Holmes, Ryan O'Malley, and Sophomore Guy Borci were all solid starters for the Indians. The two victories over the Northbridge Rams and the Oxford Pirates proved to be the highest points of the season. Despite tough losses to Narragansett, Assabet, Leicester, and a devastating defeat to Uxbridge, the team pulled together for one final battle against West Boylston on Thanksgiving Day. In the first half the Indians started out with a 16-0 lead, but had to settle for a 24-24 tie. Under the leadership of coaches Richard Egsegian, John Caputo, and Jim Pignataro a sense of team unity was established which will never be equalled at Grafton High. From the first day of captain's practice on August 15, to the final snap of the ball on Thanksgiving Day the team created a bond that will last a lifetime. Thanks to all our supporters.

ICE HOCKEY

The Grafton High School hockey team completed its season recently with one of its best records in many years. The Indians finished with a 11-7-1 record and gained second place in the Quinn Conference.

During the season the Indians defeated arch rival Auburn twice and tied the top team in Division II, St. Bernards. The icemen also came up with double wins over Westboro, Keefe Tech and Monty Tech. Their successful season was rewarded with a trip to the District Play-offs.

The Indians played a highly emotional game against the number one seed, Hudson, in the opening round of the playoffs. Grafton won 5-3 and went on to the second round to face St. Bernards. The Indians lost after a brave fight.

BOYS BASKETBALL

"Thunderstruck!"

After a poor outer league performance the Grafton Indians varsity basketball team bounced back to a 9-5 record in the Southern Worcester County League. Then they entered district competition, narrowly defeating Nashoba and Worcester Voke before losing to Clark Tournament Champs Ayer. This season was highlighted by the play of many people. John "large unit" Kloczek came through in the clutch on a regular basis this season, while Ted Azar hauled down the majority of the rebounds. Steve "takes it deep" Nicalek provided an offensive punch with his three pointers and Jeff "YT" Pelland controlled the baseline with his drives to the basket. Juniors Kevin Bergenholtz, Jason Castillo, and Keith O'Brien also provided major contributions to the team. This season was very enjoyable and all were sad to see it end. We would like to thank our coach Mr. Bergenholtz and all our devoted fans.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

"Against All Odds"

The Lady Indians had a successful season this year finishing overall with a 9-8 record. Earning both wins over Millbury, Northbridge, Uxbridge, and Prouty were high points in the team's season. The most memorable game for the girls was an overtime win at David Prouty. The toughest losses were against Oxford who became the second year state champs. Kim Smith led the team in assists and Becky Maffei led in rebounding and scoring. The other senior members whom all contributed greatly to the team included Pam Pelletier, Laurie Krause, Erika Schonberg, and Denise Bigelow. Junior Amy Collins and sophomores Kelly Atchue, Christie Carlo, Gretchen Jordan, Lynn Molinari, and Jessica Jacques all did an excellent job for the team. Even though the Lady Indians finally made it to the district games, they were defeated in the first round against Ayer. Coaches Gary Nelson and Dick Coleman added to the team's success through their dedication and determination. The Seniors wish the team luck in upcoming seasons!

BOYS TRACK

"All Fired Up"

This year's boys track team was led by Senior captains Jeff Crispen, Dan Hazen, and Steve Cunningham. With the help of many more seniors, juniors, and underclassmen the team accomplished many feats. They were undefeated in regular league meets and took second place in the SWCL league meet. Some talented members of the team went to Districts but unfortunately did not go to states. Congratulations to all members of the team and good luck to the seniors leaving. We would like to thank our devoted coaches Mike Flynn and Kerry Naughton.

This year's girls track team had a very successful season. The team finished undefeated while capturing the SWCL crown. Along with the SWCL championship the team also placed first in the Division II relay meet. Mr. Pignataro did an exceptional job of blending the leadership and experience of the seniors with the raw talent of the underclassmen. This year seemed to be very special to all the members of the team as the records fell and each athlete improved with every meet. Since the team is only losing six players, next year looks like it could be another success. The captains of the team this year were Laurie Krause, Kim Smith, and Heather Way.

BOYS TENNIS

"Stroke It"

The Boys Grafton High Varsity Tennis Team made great strides this year. It was a roller coaster of a year, but with the team's hard work, effort, and winning seven straight, it paid off for a 11-5 season and being co-SWCL champs. With their success in the league they were able to go to the first round of the districts, but they were eliminated. The team consisted of Essek Petrie, Chris Jordan, and Kevin Yap for singles. For doubles it was Mark Auger-Chris Mahan and Jess Gatley-Steve Yap. Many other players also contributed to the success of the team including seniors Mark Flinn, Jamie Walker, and Keith Johnson. Even though the team will lose some players, next year the team should go far with new talent and excellent coaching by Mr. Garreau.

What can be said about the girls tennis team? I think our record explains itself. It doesn't mean we were bad, it just means that not everyone won at the same time. Coach Kaufman was as supportive as possible with so many girls on the team. Though we did not have a winning season, we did have a lot of fun. Grafton can look forward to a strong team in the next few years. Maybe the team will win a few now that we dropped Notre Dame.

Heather — "Hey, I can do this with my eyes closed!"

SOFTBALL

"Don't Worry . . . Be Happy!"

Well . . . The season was rough, but the girls stuck it out to the bitter end. A relatively young team appeared at tryouts with only three seniors, one junior, eleven sophomores, and two freshmen. Inexperience was the key word this season, but the girls never let it get them down. Good spirits, a sense of humor, and red lollypops pulled them through. Even in the final days, the team managed to pull off a 17-2 mercy, one of the only two wins of the season. Finishing the season with only two seniors, the team will have lots of work ahead for a promising future.

Grafton began its season with a lot of promise but suffered a 10-10 tie to Clinton and a 4-2 loss to Shepherd Hill in the first two games of the season. Then Grafton started the winning track behind the great pitching of John Rodger, Steve Nicalek, Toby Richard, Ken Haddad, and Jesse Jaillet. In a team filled with hitters the hits seemed hard to come by but Mike Coonan, Nick Holden, Andy Greenlaw, and Darrin Reardon carried the rest of the team until the other hitters could come through. The defense was super all year. Chris Teso was solid all year at third and at the plate. Reardon, John Klocek and Joe Flynn made up the outfield. The team finished the season with a record of 16-4 and we also won our first SWCL title since 1984. After qualifying for the Districts Grafton coasted through behind the strong pitching of Toby Richard. The team won the Division III championship by defeating North Brookfield 13-1. Grafton lost to Lee in the State Semi-finals 5-2. Congratulations to the seniors. We would like to thank the Booster Club for the new uniforms and our fans for the great support. We would especially like to thank Mr. Coleman and Mr. Nelson for their time and effort; otherwise we wouldn't be able to say "We Are The Champions!"

Significance of the Maltese Cross

by Jack Marks

The Maltese Cross is a symbol of protection—a badge of honor. Its story is hundreds of years old. When a courageous band of Crusaders, known as the Knights of St. John, fought the Saracens for possession of the Holy Land, they encountered a new weapon unknown to European warriors. It was a simple, but horrible device of war; it wrought excruciating pain and agonizing death upon the brave fighters of the Cross. The Saracens' weapon was fire!

As the Crusaders advanced on the walls of the city, they were attacked by glass bombs containing naphtha. When they became saturated with the highly flammable liquid, the Saracens hurled a flaming tree into their midst.

Hundreds of Knights were burned alive. Others risked their lives to save their brothers in arms from dying painful deaths. Thus, these men became the first Fire Fighters—and the first of a long list of courageous Fire Fighters. Their heroic efforts were recognized by fellow Crusaders who awarded each hero with a badge of honor—a cross similar to the one Fire Fighters wear today.

Since the Knights of St. John lived for nearly four centuries on a little island in the Mediterranean Sea, named Malta, the Cross became known as the Maltese Cross.

The Maltese Cross is a symbol of protection. It means that the Fire Fighter who wears this Cross is willing to lay down his life, just as the Crusaders sacrificed their lives for their fellow men so many years ago.

The Maltese Cross is a Fire Fighter's Badge of Courage—a ladder-rung away from death. ■

I, Jennifer Allen, leave my ability to be loud and obnoxious in class to my sister, Becky, because she is always so quiet in class.

I, Cheryl Aspinall, leave a year's supply of chapstick to Andrea Goulet because she cannot go a whole day without it.

I, Angela Bagley, leave my cow and my chicken to Jodi Martin because she had to feed her kids, and go to the dentist. I also leave my UPC symbols and homogenized milk to Shannon Clark so she does not have to dip into her drug money to feed her kids.

I, Amy Beaudry, leave my "unlimited" views and cultured thoughts to my AP Spanish class and anyone else who is confined by Grafton urbanness.

I, Julie Benson, leave my air to the world so that it can breathe better.

I, Denise Bigelow, leave an opinion to Michelle Hogan and Nicole Robbins.

I, Will Boberg, leave my old French notes to any student that wants them because I do not want them.

I, Lisa Borraccino, leave all my problems and stories to Jill Grey because she has heard enough to last a life time.

I, Keith Bourget, leave my truck load of food notes to Mrs. Flynn because I have no use for them.

I, Julie Burkle, leave my left-overs to Shawna Erickson because I have extras.

I, Jennifer Carr, leave my wonderful singing voice to the field hockey team because I am "the King of the Forest."

I, Shannon Clark, leave all the men I did not want at W.P.I. to Genea Rychlik because I know she would want them all!!! I also leave UPC symbols and pasturized milk to Angela Bagley so she does not need to give away anymore cows and so she can get some sunglasses for free.

I, Todd A. Conway, leave the few short years of high school to a certain group of people, that are a few, who do not take life the way they were given.

I, Melissa Cote, leave a budget to Mr. Libera so he can buy all those things that he saw at the conference to make band something big.

I, Tamara Dizenzo, leave all my love and affection to Adrianna, my little girl. I also leave my fifth period computer to Mrs. Bedell because it will not be in working condition when I leave.

I, Lisa Douaire, leave Chris Penney a box of straws and a mirror to entertain himself during open study next year.

I, Derek Grandinetti, leave my book on how to party because underclassmen, Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen, do not know how.

I, Jill Grey, leave my cuteness to Danyelle Warren because I know.

I, Allyssa Hart, leave my tears to Mr. Tite.

I, Critter Jordan, leave the victory win over Hudson and semifinal history of GHS hockey to the Grafton hockey team for the emotion and heart we felt toward the game.

I, Nicole Jordan, leave all the donuts in the world to Norman.

I, Laurie Krause, leave my Hillshire Farms product to those certain senior guy "friends" of mine because it is time the name gets passed on.

I, Allison Leger, leave Rob Leger, my brother, the keys to the Luxurymobile so he can give everyone rides to and from school.

I, Becky Maffei, leave my full sized poster of Christian Laettner to Gretchen Jordan.

I, Melissa Majowicz, leave an empty table in study to Emily, Tina, Melissa, Julie, and Bobby.

I, Juanita Maranda, leave my easy schedule to Tracy Girouard because she needs a break.

I, Michael Murphy, leave my class ring to Mrs. Kasierski as one last memory of the class of 1991.

I, Robin Nelson, leave ham with pineapple sauce to Mrs. Rector because she is a well known ham lover.

I, Nans Neurdenburg, leave my style to the Freshman girls, my top locker to Dawn Booth, my class ring and love to Dana W. Johnson, my books to the trash, my strength to Heather Bolack, and my openness to Juanita Maranda.

I, Stephen Nicalek, leave my car to Erica Butke and Courtney McKinstry because they always ask to use it.

I, Amy O'Brien, leave my math ability to my brother Keith because he needs all the help he can get and I only have a little to give.

I, April Patch, leave my eyes to Mr. Carter because if he does not get a new set of his own soon he will be squinting forever.

I, Shilpa Patel, leave my everlasting wisdom to Julie Rahal because it is time the air moved out and the wisdom moved in.

I, Pam Pelletier, leave my end of the season injuries to some deserving Junior because someone has to follow in my footsteps.

I, Genea Rychlik, leave a box of straws to Chris Penney to amuse himself during third period study.

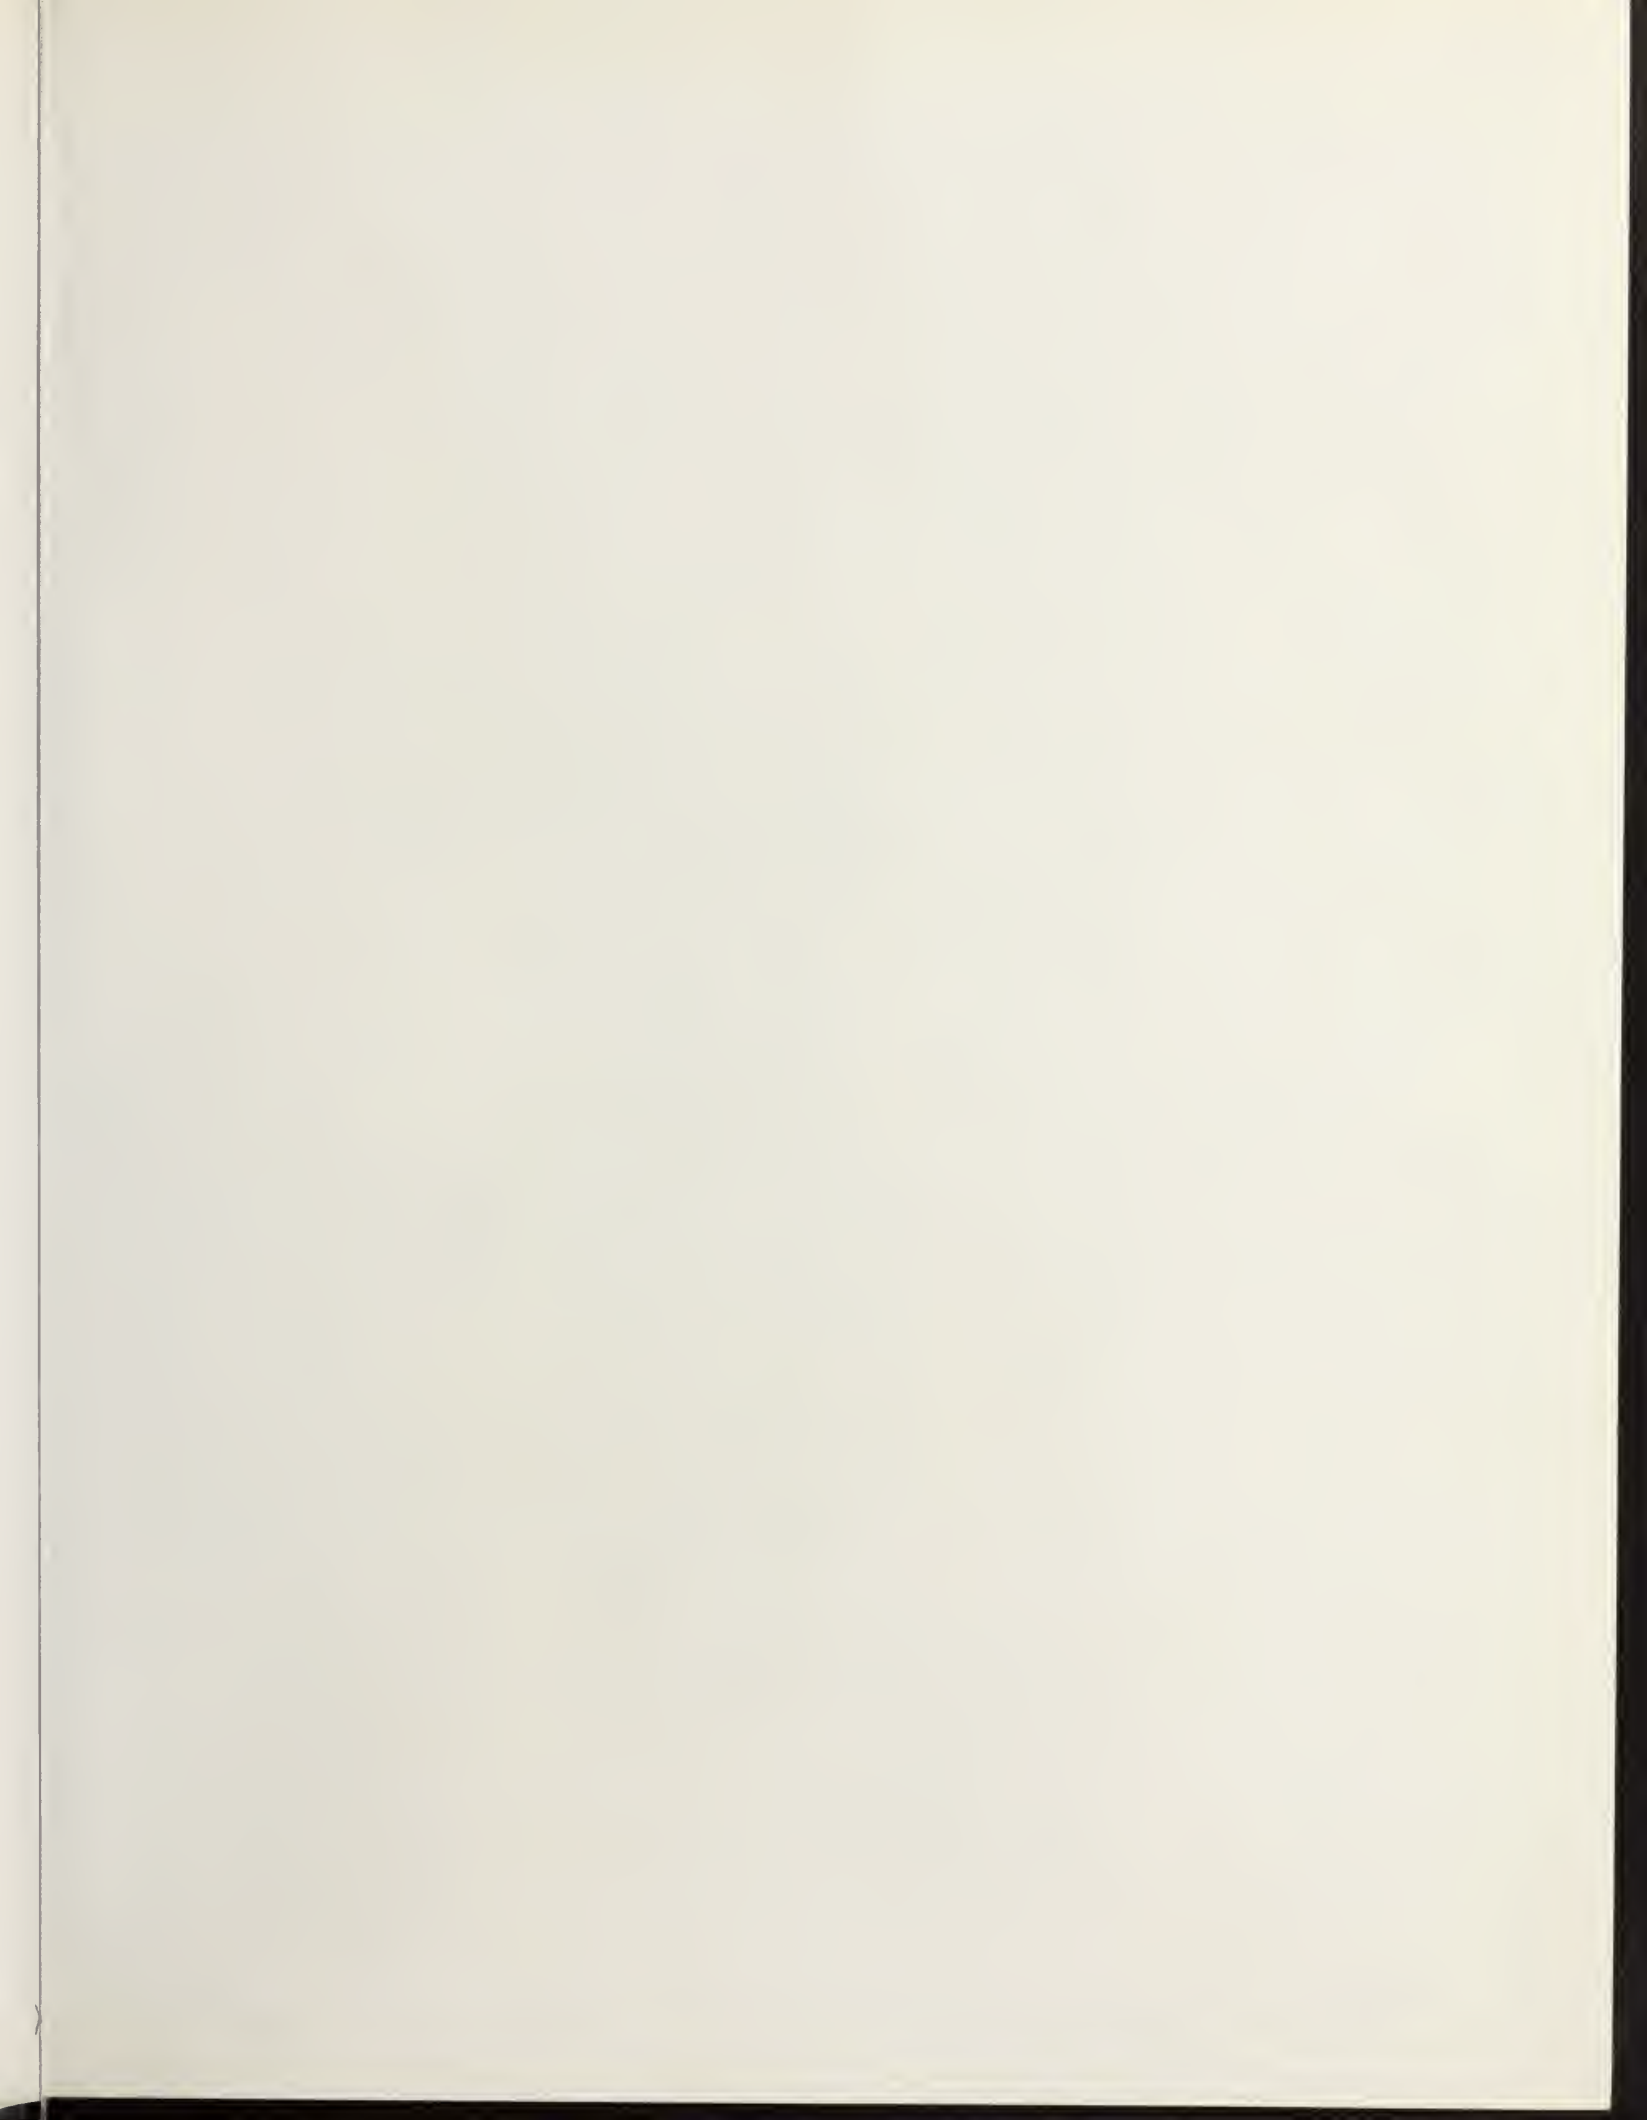

I, Erika Schonberg, leave a thought that Lisa and Gretchen will still be here two more years and I am gone now!

I, Liz Supski, leave my hair to Josh Briggs so he can sell it to a wig shop (after I am dead by result of a faulty tonsillectomy, of course) to use the money to buy Tid some pretty new tights; the other ones were so tired.

I, Amy Szczur, leave all my talks and problems to Mr. Richardson and Mr. Naughton. THANKS!!

I, Dennis Whitney, leave courage and desire to win to the Indians football team to keep the best alive!
